Cremated Remains & Keepsake Options

2013

There are an ever changing world of alternative ideas available with regards to choices for cremated remains.

The options we have shown within this booklet are primarily geared towards retaining or interring remains however there is a far wider spectrum of options available; from burial at sea, transformation of remains into glass, keepsakes or jewellery, or even unique requests such as fireworks.

Please do not hesitate to put forward your thoughts or ask any questions which you may have.
